

May 1, 2015

Breakfast and Conference Agenda

Ramada Inn • 3321 South 72nd Street •
Omaha, NE

BREAKFAST

7:30 – 9:00 am Purple Ribbon Awards Breakfast
“Honoring the Past and Challenging the Future”
The DVC will honor the 2015 Purple Ribbon Award winners. Keynote speaker, Kelly Miller, will challenge our community to move into the future with the needs of culturally specific populations at the center of our work to end sexual and domestic violence.

CONFERENCE

9:30 – 9:45 am Opening Remarks and Overview of the Day

9:45 – 12:00 pm Keynote: Envision and Create a Future without Violence – Kelly Miller
A review of the history of the movement to end sexual and domestic violence, the current strengths and challenges, and a strategy for future Collaboration and Movement Building. Discussion around multiple forms of oppression and how these larger systemic issues compound each other and impact people differently. A new social justice movement will move the most marginalized people in our community to the center in order to really end this violence.

12:00 – 1:00 pm Networking Lunch – Provided

1:00 – 3:00 pm BREAKOUT Sessions – Choose one focus area:

- Hispanic
- LGBTQ
- Black/African American

Each session will provide a culturally specific foundation for that community including historical perspective, current issues and providing trauma informed care. Specific barriers will be discussed and participants will be asked to provide feedback on primary challenges addressing domestic violence and sexual assault within that community.

To Note: Our intention is to provide a safe space for interaction and conversation. We understand these groups often intersect, and we will come together as one group in the final session.

3:15 – 4:30 pm Creating Transformation
Based around feedback from breakout sessions, a guided discussion and activity on where we go from here. A collaborative action plan will result.

CEUS/CLE: This program meets the criteria of an approved continuing education program for mental health practice, social work and law enforcement.