

TINA WILLIAMS, 41

November 3, 2003 – Omaha, NE

At 2:30 a.m., 911 dispatchers received a call, the third from the same residence, and heard a woman screaming. Officers arrived and found Tina Williams dead from 20 stab wounds. Her body was found between her two children, ages 2 and 3 years old. Hours after stabbing Tina, her estranged husband, Wesley Williams turned himself in to the police. Blood was on his shirt, pants, and coat. DNA tests later confirmed that it was Tina's blood on Williams' clothing. Tina had filed for divorce and a protection order against Williams before she was killed. In 2009, six years after Tina's murder, Wesley Williams pleaded guilty and was sentenced to 70 to 80 years in prison.
